

Definition: Radian

One radian is defined as the angle subtended from the center of a circle which intercepts an arc equal in length to the radius of the circle.